Raffaella Manzini is Full Professor at LIUC - Università Cattaneo (Italy). She teaches “Business Administration and Organization” and “Innovation and New Product development” at LIUC. She is also lecturer of Innovation Management at ENI Corporate University. Her research interests are R&D and innovation management, technology strategy, management and organization, innovation and intellectual property. In these fields of study she has around 50 international publications. Since 2010 she is Director of LIUC IP Centre, involved in research, training and services on the topic of Innovation and Intellectual Property.

She obtained her Master Degree in Management Engineering in 1994 at Politecnico di Milano.

Raffaella Manzini
School of Industrial Engineering
LIUC – Università Cattaneo
Corso Matteotti, 22 - 21053 Castellanza, Italy
rmanzini@liuc.it
Phone: +39.0331.572.294 - Fax: +39.0331.483.444
Skype: Raffaella_Manzini, http://per.liuc.it/raffaella.manzini

List of main publications (ISI and/or SCOPUS journals)

List of the research projects in progress

1. ETICO, “Innovation and technology transfer in the energy industry”, with Politecnico di Milano and Energy Cluster.

2. Open Innovation in the European Manufacturing Industry, with University of Gävle and University of Linköping, Sweden; Lappeenranta University of Technology, Finland, and Kent Business School, UK.

3. Technology Intelligence in R&D intensive industries, with Saes Getters Company;
4. The appropriability of innovation in high tech, multi-invention contexts, with BTSR Company.